Seniors Enjoyed Trip

The senior class of the high school enjoyed their trip to Washington during their recent vacation period. They visited historic and interesting places in New York city and Philadelphia en route by bus and saw much of Washington with its buildings and historical monuments. Principal and Mrs. Chester Parker accompanied the class.

Members of the class making the trip were Helen Louise Andrews, Barbara Marion Given, Marguerite Louise Barnes, Susie Lorita Cota, Cophie Amelia Duda, Lawrence Norman Whitney, Floyd Myron Dunnell, Jr., Dwight Parker Stearns, Phyllis Elizabeth Ruhl, Eleanor Marguerite Severance, Beatrice Marion Jurkowski, Anna Marie Lernatowitz, Isabell Lura Stone, Kenneth Howard Walker, Edmund Miles Morgan and Janet Mary Janes.

Black-Lane Wedding

Miss Addie Belle Lane, daughter of Mrs. H. E. Lane, of Brattleboro, and formerly of South Vernon, and Wayne Arthur Black, son of Mrs. John H. Black, of this town, were married Thursday, April 11, at the parsonage of the local Congregational church by the Rev. Joseph W. Reeves, the pastor. The couple were attended by Andrew MacDonald, of Leyden, and Miss Hazel Black of this town. The bride was graduated from the Brattleboro High School and the groom attended Northfield High School. He was discharged from the service in the army last November. The couple will make their home in Brattleboro.

Keene Summer Theater

The Summer Theater at Keene will again be in operation this summer presenting a nine-week festival of recent Broadway hits. Closed since 1941, the Bradford Road Barn Playhouse will open to the public on July 2.

In connection with the professional theater an apprentice or studio theater will be in operation for discovery and training of young players. Phyllis Thaxter, Hollywood starlet of "Thirty Seconds Over Tokio" fame is one of its outstanding graduates.

Honor Students

The honors at the Northfield High School have been posted as follows: High honors, Helen Andrew, Phyllis Ruhl, Marilyn Dresser, Shirley Gould, Alva Jones, Blanche Duda, Ruth Holton, Vera Allen, Harold Berling; honors, Lorraine Gingras, Lois Stearns, Marian Avery, Albert Clough and Mary Ann Wozniak.

Fortnightly Annual

The Fortnightly Club will meet Friday afternoon, April 26, in Alexander Hall for its annual sessions and election of officers. Mrs. George H. Sheldon will preside and introduce the speaker, Miss Elizabeth Sabin, whose topic is announced as "Step on the Treadle." Following the meeting a food sale will be conducted by the ways and means committee and Mrs. J. Glover Johnson urges that all members contribute and bring to the meeting some article of food to be sold. The executive committee of the club will hold a meeting at 2.45 o'clock.

Brotherhood Session

The Spring meeting of the Franklin County Federation of Church Brotherhoods and Men's Clubs will be held at the Baptist Church in Shelburne Falls next Monday evening, April 29. A large attendance is expected and reservations must be made for the supper which will be served at 6.30 o'clock. Harry A. Erickson, of Mount Herman, is president of the federation and a number of members from the church club of the local Congregational church and from the Fellowship Club of the South Vernon church are expected to attend. The speaker will be James C. Fletcher of the Berkshire Research Foundation who will present the situation of relationships between labor and management. Mr. Fletcher has served as an arbitrator in labor disputes and was formerly connected with public relations in the army service. A most interesting meeting is expected.

Sportsmen's Dinner

The annual dinner and dance of the local Fish and Game Club was held Wednesday evening, the 24th, at the Town Hall with a record attendance. Pres. James E. Dresser was master of ceremonies assisted by a large committee of willing workers and the supper was prepared by the women of the Grange. Door prizes were offered and many were recipients. Everybody had a good time and the event provided a most enjoyable evening.

Alliances Have Annual

The Women's Alliance of the Unitarian church and the Evening Alliance have recently held most enthusiastic annual meetings. Reports of the past were considered and an optimistic outlook prevails for the future. Both organizations are doing a splendid work and are co-operating fully with their minister in all endeavors. The Alliance chose as the new officers: Mrs. Oler D. Doolittle, president; Mrs. John McNeil, vice-president; Mrs. Henry C. Holten, recording secretary; Mrs. Joseph Morgan, assistant; Mrs. Charles H. Webster, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank W. Williams, treasurer. On the program committee are Mrs. George N. Kidder, Mrs. John McNeil, Mrs. Selah F. Harriman, Rev. Hazel Rogers Gredler and Mrs. Carroll Miller.

The Evening Alliance elected Mrs. Eleanor Parker, president; Mrs. Marian Ware, vice-president; Mrs. Shirley Kehl, secretary, and Mrs. Ada Miner, treasurer.

Friendly Class Elects

At the recent annual meeting of the Friendly Class of the Congregational Church held at the home of Mrs. Roy A. Barrows on Winchester Road, the following officers were elected: Mrs. Raymond Carter, president; Mrs. Emily Kirk, vice-president; Miss Sophie Servais, secretary; Mrs. Joseph Reeves, treasurer; Mrs. Hubert Eastman, auditor; social committee, Mrs. Dana Lanphear, chairman; Mrs. Fred

Dies In Florida

The Rev. Dr. Thomas T. Brown, of this town, died after a lingering illness on Monday, April 8, in the Florida Sanitarium in Orlando, in which city he had for several years maintained a home during the winter season. During the war years he remained in the south and did not come north. He had been pastor of several large congregations in the southland and in Maryland and upon his retirement came to Northfield and bought the former Newton residence on Main Street. Funeral services were conducted at his home in Orlando and the body was brought to Baltimore for burial. Surviving are his wife, who is returning to Northfield for a stay at the home here.

Conducts Services Here

The Rev. Herbert J. Gabriel, district superintendent of the Free Methodist Church, visited Northfield during the Eastern season and conducted services of the local church on Easter Sunday and during the week. Rev. Helen Bassett, the local pastor, assisted in all services.

Bolton, Mrs. Dana Leavis, Mrs. Leonard Lanphear; program, Mrs. Bernard Whitney, chairman; Mrs. Gladys Reed, Miss Helen Handy, Mrs. Philip Mann, Jr.; work, Mrs. Harrison Stacy, chairman; Mrs. Winston Churchill, Mrs. Owen Stacy; class teacher, Mrs. Roy Barrows.

Forum Meetings End

The series of forum meetings held in the Town Hall on Sunday evenings closed its formal gathering on Palm Sunday evening when an address was presented by the Rev. Earle R. Steeves of the First Parish Church of Leominster on "How Essential is Religion in a Post-War World." A discussion followed a most interesting talk. A special forum was provided on Easter Sunday evening when Robert N. Taylor, Louis Van Phelan and Raymond O. Miller spoke on the opportunity of our community. The sessions of the forum were well attended and the Rev. Mrs. Gredler deserves a vote of congratulation in her arranging of the affair.

Bennie Boliski

Bennie Boliski, 41, son of Mr. and Edward Boliski, of the old Northfield Farms road, died Thursday, April 11, at his home. He was born in West Swanzey, N. H., but had resided here for some time.

Besides his parents there are four sisters, Mrs. Helen Goldsors, Mrs. Irene Krewski, Mrs. Sophie Cosack, all of New York, and Mrs. Tessie Matosky, of this town, and three brothers, Stanley, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Edward, of New York city, and Raymond, of West Virginia.

Friday, April 26, has been designated by Governor Tobin, of this state, as the annual Arbor and Bird Day.
